It's News Here!

Airplane Helps Spot Fire; But Too Late to Save Trailer

An unidentified airplane pilot helped lead a Sheriff's deputy to a blazing trailer fire, but the help came too late to save the structure.

An airplane flying low attracted the attention of Crawford County Sheriff deputy Jo Ellen Bonnington and led her to a house trailer on May Lake Road near Frederic. The trailer was already totally engulfed by flames, and when the Frederic Fire Department arrived, Fire Chief Al Leng said you could see through the walls of the trailer house with additions, owned by John Wingett. The building was unoccupied at the time of the fire.

A Frederic fireman, Larry St. John, was treated and released from Mercy Hospital for smoke inhalation. The fire is believed to have been caused by a wood stove.

Thompson, Sloan Win City Council Seats

Gordon "Sandy" Thompson and William Dennis Sloan won two seats on the Grayling City Council. Thompson and newcomer Sloan were sworn in at the Grayling City Council meeting November 9.

The official results of the November 3rd election were Thompson - 108 votes, Sloan - 93 votes, and Doris Harland - 73 votes. Approximately 140 persons voted in the city election.

Gordon "Sandy" Thompson was re-appointed Mayor of Grayling by the Grayling City Council Monday night and Robert Golnick was re-appointed Mayor Pro Tem. The two men will hold the offices for two years until another city council election when the council decides again who the mayor and mayor pro tem will be. Newly elected Councilman William Dennis Sloan was also sworn in at the regular meeting held Monday.

Next Adventure November 19

Noted Author To Present Alaskan Film in Grayling

On Thursday evening, November 19, widely recognized author Dr. Theodore J. Walker will present his film, "A Tame and Wild Alaska" at Grayling's Joseph Stripe Auditorium as part of the community's Travel and Adventure Series. The film is slated to begin promptly at 7:30 and tickets will be available at the door.

Considered the world's foremost authority on the gray whale, Dr. Walker authored "The Whale Primer": contributed "The California Gray Whale Comes Back" to the March 1971 issue of the National Geographic Magazine; and wrote the critically acclaimed "Red Salmon, Brown Bear".

"Red Salmon, Brown Bear" is his account of 7 months spent alone in the Alaskan wilderness observing the life cycle in and around a small lake, Lake Eva. He also filmed a color documentary, "Alaska Wilderness Lake", which has been praised for its content and beauty, and which was nominated for an Academy Award.

Often described as a contemporary Henry David Thoreau with Alaska's Lake Eva as his Walden Pond, Ted Walker devoted seven months to the dedicated study of the total life cycle in and around Lake Eva. From early April until late October, he patiently observed and studied the total environment around, on and in Lake Eva.

Climaxing this solitary vigil is the return of the salmon-struggling and fighting their way up-stream to spawn-battling rapids and currents, running the gauntlet of voracious otters, sea lions, sea gulls, bald eagles and the dominant creatures of the area, the Alaskan brown bear.

Dr. Walker will be appearing in person in Grayling on November 19 to narrate his full color adventure of the Alaskan Wilderness.

Red Coat Round-Up Expands

Over the past several decades the buck pole in Grayling's City Park has served as the center of deer hunting activity in much of northern Michigan. In existence since before the half-way point of this century, the buck pole has offered the opportunity for successful hunters to display their trophies and compete for prizes. This year's event will prove to be no exception, but will feature several changes.

Many requests for expansion of the event have been received by the Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce who sponsors the buck pole. In response to those requests, chairman Dave Wiltse has extended the event to two days. Pre-registered hunters will have Nov. 15 and 16th in which to bag their trophy and bring it to the pole to be eligible for several hundred dollars in cash prizes.

Wiltse added that the prize money for the 1981 Red Coat Round-Up has been doubled in most all categories. Prizes consist of $100.00 each for the heaviest buck and largest rack (most points). In addition $10.00 each will be awarded to the first ten successful hunters to bring their bucks to the pole. Other categories include youngest successful hunter, and first successful female hunter. Added to many meals of tasty venison, they will receive gift certificates from Grayling area merchants.

Last year Harold Baker of Grayling walked away with the lion's share of the prizes with his beautiful 10 point, 177 lbs. whitetail.

According to the Dept. of Natural Resources, Crawford County deer hunters should see an increase in their targets this season. Back to back mild winters have risen the state's deer population to levels seldom reached in this century.

All in all it promises to be a banner year for those who seek Michigan's elusive whitetails and once again Grayling's Red Coat Round-Up will serve as a major focal point.

Registration is $2.00 and can be accomplished at many Grayling area businesses or at the Chamber of Commerce office.

TOUCHING UP THE "FACE"—Camp Shawono workers plant a rope tow bar up the side of the "face" at Hanson Hills. The Shawono crew disassembled an old tow line and built the new one without the help of any big machinery.

Young Camp Shawono Crew Gives Hanson Hills a Facelift

By Jon Thompson

The "face" - the fastest hill at Hanson Hills - will be reopened for this year's ski season. And the entire recreation area will be sporting a younger, new look after seven weeks of clean-up by a Camp Shawono crew.

The Camp Shawono crew, seven young men and one supervisor, installed a tow line up the side of the "face" and cleared most of the weeds off the hill using only grass whips.

Besides reopening the "face" - which was closed for five years - the crew has built fences, cleaned and painted the lodge, and installed two professional horseshoe pits. Additionally, they've groomed three of the ski hills, cleared a nature path (The former Little Smokey railroad line. It will also serve as a cross-country ski trail), and disassembled an old tow line to use on the new line up the "face". The crew also cleared a large section of land near the park's entrance, burning 30 brushpiles and cutting about 20 face-cord of wood that will be burned in the lodge to reduce gas heating bills.

Currently, the crew is working on marking cross-country trails at the park. All the work performed by the crew is at no cost to the park.

Six hills will be open for this ski season with four rope

Nuisance Ordinance Battle Continues

By Jon Thompson

The battle among Beaver Creek residents over a nuisance ordinance continued Monday night as 100 persons gathered at the township board regular meeting.

A large group of residents still want the ordinance thrown out, but an opposing group handed in a petition last night with 96 signatures asking the nuisance ordinance and a junk yard ordinance remain as they are.

The nuisance ordinance - designed to clean up junk and other hazardous materials on private property - became effective in the township September 1.

The two opposing groups agreed at the Monday night board meeting to send five representatives each to a meeting Saturday at 2 p.m. at the township hall. They will work on an amendment to the ordinance and present a proposal to the township board at their next meeting in December.

The group opposing the ordinance claims it infringes upon their rights and will cost too much money to comply. The group supporting the ordinance claims it is in the public interest to get rid of dangerous materials and structures and clean up the community.

The nuisance ordinance has sparked so much fire at the last two township board meetings, township officials haven't been able to conduct regular business. Monday night an insurance man was unable to even enter the packed township hall and had to leave a note that the board didn't receive until the meeting was over. Also put on hold because of the nuisance ordinance was discussion of the Weyerhaeuser fire protection.

2 Grayling Men Seriously Hurt in Traffic Accidents

Kevin Barnett, 19, and Walt Allington, 79, both from Grayling, were seriously injured in separate accidents occurring at the same location last Friday and Saturday.

At the corner of M-72 and Old Lake Road last Saturday, a car driven by Jess Nephew, 50, allegedly made a left turn in front of a motorcycle driven by Barnett, according to a Crawford County Sheriff Dept. report. Barnett was taken to Grayling Mercy Hospital and later transferred to Otsego Memorial Hospital in Gaylord by the Crawford County Ambulance Corps. He was listed in stable condition in the extensive care unit.

At the same intersection last Friday, a car driven by Allington allegedly made a left turn in front of a semi-tractor and trailer driven by Ron Childs of Swartz Creek. The Jaws of Life were used to pry Allington from his car. He was taken to Grayling Mercy and was discharged session at the beginning of the board meeting, Diedrich, in response to a Concerned Citizen's question, said the total amount of raises given to all Crawford AuSable school employees for 1981-82 was $119,000.

• During a routine adoption of budget amendments, Bill Morford, serving on the school board's finance committee, said he learned in going over the budget figures that the school district only had about a $2,000 difference in revenues for 1980-81 and 1981-82. He said state cutbacks in transportation and other reductions knocked off any gain in revenues this year from increased property taxes.

• If the millage passes December 10th, there will be two tax bills sent out this year. The school district will have to pay the additional $4,000 to $5,000 cost of the city and townships for the extra tax bills.

In other millage election news, the Concerned Citizens of Crawford County, at a meeting last Thursday, unanimously turned down a request from the New Alliance for Education to work together to pass the millage request.

Also, in the October 29 issue of the Avalanche, it was stated the Crawford AuSable School Board will not levy .2 mills for sports if the millage passes and the Grayling Booster Club wishes to continue funding sports. It should have stated the board does not have to levy .2 mills for sports. No formal decision has been made yet concerning levying millage.

over the weekend.

Two other accidents involving D.U.I.L. charges occurred at the south and north end of Grayling. On Friday, a car went off the south bound ramp to I-75 and the driver was charged with D.U.I.L.

On Sunday, a car struck the rear of a car carrying Phillip Taylor, 32, of Grayling, and Sandra Maybee, 37, along Old 27 near the airport. Maybee was injured as their car rolled over and was treated at Mercy Hospital. A female driver of the rear car in the accident was charged with D.U.I.L.

In other sheriff dept. news, six car-deer accidents and seven breaking and enterings were reported last week. One breaking and entering was solved by deputy Jeff Anthony as he recognized footprints of suspects from a B & E the previous night. Two televisions and a packback full of equipment were recovered.

The Sheriff Dept. and Grayling City Police worked together to apprehend one breaking and entering suspect from a Grayling Country Club burglary. Another suspect turned himself in after police chased the two all day and part of the night last Sunday through the woods southwest of the clubhouse.

The computer prints one line of characters at a time, where as the older model printed individual characters. This has resulted in a significant time savings for the hospital.

The new data processing station, IBM Model 3742, has terminals for two people. Some of the functions it performs include admissions, mailing labels, cash payments, charges and payroll.

A keypunch operator types information which is recorded on a diskette, similar to a 45 r.p.m. record. The diskette is then inserted into the computer terminal to print the information.

The System has been performing well during its first week of use, LaMotte said.

"It's a good system," she said.

New Alliance Answer Line

The New Alliance for Education is based on a philosophy that one-to-one communication about school system facts and community needs can combine to promote quality schools and a growing, prosperous community. To help reach this goal, the "Answer Line" will research your questions and provide accurate, complete answers. If you would like a question answered in next week's column, send it to "Answer Line", Rt. 1, Box 2348, Grayling, or leave it at the Avalanche office. We received the following questions to be answered this week:

1. Why were athletics included in the millage request when the Booster Club is paying for them? Why not leave athletics off the millage proposal and ask for less?

The New Alliance felt it was important to include as much of the original program as possible. The New Alliance and the School Board felt that outside funding for extracurricular programs and athletics would not be realistic or successful beyond this year. Public support of the Booster Club effort indicates widespread support of an athletic and extracurricular program. In view of the minimal cost of an athletic program (20 cents per $1,000 S.E.V.), the New Alliance and the Board felt it was reasonable to include this in the millage request.

2. Who is running this millage campaign?

The millage campaign initiated by the New Alliance for Education is a concept new to the Grayling area. It is a campaign organized and run by an alliance of citizens concerned about quality education for all Crawford-AuSable School System students. Chaired by Randy Thompson, the New Alliance has approximately 35 members heading committees and another 100 members serving on these committees. The School Board and administration are consulted for statistics but play no role in the campaign management.

3. What will class sizes be if the millage passes?

With Frederic school reopening and the reinstating of laid-off teachers, class sizes should return to the 1980-81 school year level. That is: Kindergarten and first grade, maximum of 28; second through fourth grade, maximum of 30; fifth and sixth grade, maximum of 32; middle and high school, an average of 30, if possible, except for physical education and band. Currently, with teaching staff reduced by 28%, one kindergarten class has 37 students, some elementary classes have 38 students, and some middle and high school classes have up to 45 students with some phys. ed. classes having 60 or more. The New Alliance feels that these class sizes do not offer a quality education.

4. Will the bus routes be restored if the millage passes?

Assistant Superintendent Paul Lerg says that bus route cut-backs were part of proposition 3, which is not within the 3.75 millage request. Restoring bus routes would cost $40,000.00. However, if the millage passes, bus routes will be changed to accommodate the reopening of the Frederic school.

tows and a T-bar operating. Howard Taylor, newly hired park manager, said the whole facility is in as good of condition as it ever has been. Taylor, who donated his time for several months as interim manager, was selected by the Hanson Hills Recreation Authority as the 1981-82 manager at their November 4 meeting. He will receive a salary of approximately $3,000 for work from November, 1981, to September 1, 1982.

Taylor said opening the "face" could bring more local skiers out to the park. He also said the cross-country ski trails will be marked, publicized, and groomed this season, which may attract out-of-town skiers.

From Our Corner...

Another deer hunting season opens this coming Sunday that should give a boost to the economy of Crawford County and points north...the red coats, as they were referred to for so many years have taken on the color orange, will be invading the county in search for the white tail...this should be an excellent season for the amount of deer that the DNR has reported due to the last two winters that have been quite open reducing the winter deer kill...opening on Sunday should help the businesses as the hunter will be arriving two to three days before the 15th...

We can remember a long time ago how main street would be flooded with hunters the first three or four days of hunting, possibly we can look forward to something like that this year...there wasn't too much of a color tour this fall as September and October were so nasty, we can hardly remember any color at all...September and October are supposed to be two of the nicer months of the year in northern Michigan, and this year they were blah...about all that one can expect now is snow...and to think the only thing the ol' Timer does with that is shovel, and very little at that...we're not the outdoor type...

From the Las Vegas Sun...You know you're in trouble when...your eraser always wears out before the pencil...

From what we have been hearing lately there seems to be a retired railroad man who lives in Grayling that is in need for a chauffeur to drive him around...he would be safe that way while peddling his Booster Club tickets that are earmarked for the GHS athletic fund...

We ran into the Leprechaun Monday afternoon and all he can talk about is hunting season coming up Sunday...he even told us how we could stay warm in the woods...me, mind you...we haven't hunted a day in our life, and the only way we ever wound up in the woods is when Uncle Sam told us to go train, not hunt...one would think the Leprechaun had 440 acres some place where deer are supposedly to roam...he does and even with that, the talk is he has a guide with him...

With not too much to relate this week we will try to get across one more time...seems like every now and then we have to put in our column the criterion that make up the newspaper...the biggest is Letters to the Editor, people figure all you have to do is write the letter and submit it...some do not even think of the libel aspect of which they write...others may be just a personal vendetta against another person...which is not in content for what a newspaper stands for...

The other bug-a-boo for decisions for an editor to survive through...two predominate ones are, we want you to put this on the front page, you do it for this church or organization, why not our group...the other is, we want this in a conspicuous place in the paper and want you to run it for three weeks...the only answer we can give is that the format of the Avalanche changes each week...it is our prerogative what goes in and where in that week's issue...space is the essence...and also what article is the most important for that issue...space for paid advertisement comes first, otherwise there would be no news...

Veteran's Day Wednesday, November 11th...a day for all of us to pause for just a moment and pay our respect for those who paid the supreme sacrifice so that we may live in a free country...

This does it for this week, goodnight T.J., Stef and Amber and to all have a nice weekend and to the hunters, lots of luck...

Chris Clover's Corner

By Sue Louchart

Hi! I'm Chris Clover here with news from the Crawford County 4-H Clubs.

The Needlecraft Club went on a trip down to the Ice House owned by Cora Flowers and Jill Wyman to see all the fabrics, handcraft items and the antiques. They got many ideas for projects in counted cross stitch for Christmas and are going to try their hand at needlepoint on plastic canvas this week. Mrs. Flowers and Mrs. Wyman have been very helpful in providing small projects for the members to learn on. Everyone enjoyed the trip and thank the ladies for all their help.

The Hoofbeats Horse Club sure have been busy. They have been showing their horses at all the county fairs in the area each weekend. Have been taking lot of ribbons too, I have been told. Nice going 4-H'ers! Keep up the good work!

The Kitchen Magicians are selling Christmas paper to earn monies to support their cooking projects. My nose tells me that several of the clubs are going to be having bake sales soon. Sounds and smells nice!

A word to the leaders that the Council Meeting for November has been changed to Monday the 23rd at 7:00 p.m. There will be no December meeting. It is extremely important that you attend this November meeting as Youth Agent Dan Blackledge will be meeting with you for the last time as he has accepted a new youth position in the Flint area. Our new officers will take over in the January meeting.

The 4-H Peer-Plus and Group Dynamics Workshop at Kettunen Center is December 4-6. Teams of teens and adults who are interested in learning more about themselves and others should attend. PEER-PLUS is a group interaction program for older youth usually 15 years old and up. It is designed to emphasize the strength through a positive group atmosphere. PEER stands for Positive Educational Relationships. PLUS refers to additional experiences in communications, value clarification, group cohesiveness, and trust building. PEER-PLUS is learning by experiencing.

4-H members can receive free tickets to the Michigan State Women's basketball and gymnastics home events if you contact the Office. Also 4-H members may receive discounted tickets for the Jan. 16th Detroit Pistons vs Boston Celtics. The dates for Exploration Days at State are June 23-25, put them on your calendar. A reminder that the Court-house had a switchboard put in for everyone effective November 12, it is 348-2848. Ask for the Cooperative Home Extension Office.

If anyone would like to join one of the many clubs, would like to start a new club, call the 4-H Office at the number 348-2841 and let us know. See you next week with more news about the clubs and what's new in 4-H. See you!

Bits O'Talk

By Fay Bovee

Laura Olson, formerly of Timberview, is now resident of Matson's Mill town Manor, 808 Chestnut Grayling, Mich. She wanted to let all her friends know that she has moved.

Mr. and Mrs. Danny Tinker gave a surprise birthday party for Danny's mother, Mrs. Margaret Tinker, on Sunday, Nov. 8th. Those attending were Martin and Bea Tinker of Grayling, Chuck and Elaine Goen of Torch Lake, Norman and Beatrice Moyer of Blue Lake, Shirley Kay Melroy of West Branch and some grandchildren. Everyone had a great time and Mrs. Tinker was very surprised.

Mrs. Inez Crosby of Fairgrove was a guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Millie Crosby over the weekend of Oct. 31st. On Sunday they were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Metiva, Mrs. Loretta Barnes was also a dinner guest of the Metivas.

St. John Lutheran

Church News

Our Congregation observed a very special occasion on Sunday, November 8, as we recognized the 92nd birthday of Laura McLeod. She is one of our Senior members who has lived her whole life in the service of her Lord. Just for fun we sang a Happy Birthday song from former Sunday School days. The Altar was covered with an Heirloom Cloth, graced with her favorite Candelabra and pink carnations.

A special Coffee Hour was hosted by her daughter, Dorothy McLeod, assisted by Darla Moore, Mickey Sorenson, Mildred Blaine. Eileen Chappel made the most delicious birthday cake, resplendent in the fall colors. Loretta Ross cut and served the cake. Present with Laura were her grandsons, Jon and Dick with his wife, Ronnie and sons Billy and Mike. It was such a happy time as we shared our appreciation for Laura.

From one of the Eldest, we also noted the birthdays of two of our youngest members, Terry Sorenson and Todd Moore. Young people...the Love of Laura's life.

Diabetes Clinic Held Here

Over 200 people were tested for diabetes in a free screening conducted at Mercy Hospital, Grayling Nov. 4 and 5.

The screening, conducted in conjunction with the American Diabetes Association, Michigan Affiliate, was conducted to detect unknown diabetics. The association estimates that there are over 200,000 people in Michigan that have diabetes and don't know it.

The test involved a blood sample drawn by a technician from the hospital. The blood sugar levels will be calculated and the results sent to the ADA. Those with above normal readings will be notified, along with their physician, within four to six weeks, said Jeff Richmond, Laboratory Department Head.

When the screening was conducted last year, 142 people were tested, compared with 205 screenings this year. Of the 142 tested in 1980, four were diagnosed as diabetic.

"We are very pleased with the turnout this year," Richmond said.

Diabetes is a major cause of heart attack, kidney failure, blindness and death. People who run a risk of developing diabetes are over forty, overweight and related to diabetics. The ADA recommends that these people be tested yearly.

Grayling Elementary School News

Mrs. Lauria's special education room made turkeys for the showcase on November 6, 1981. They made them out of colored wall paper and out of regular colored paper. They did it as a class project in their room. We thought they were very cute. The project was for Thanksgiving. Written by Amy Denton and Betty Partello, fifth grade.

Mrs. Ingvarsson's first and second grade classroom carved a pumpkin. They said they liked the pulp inside the pumpkin.

Dana Nielson, Scott Haas, Kim Gray, Sara Plumer, Christina Northrup, and Andy Fedewa wrote a story. The story was about a dog named Elmo who didn't want to be a dog. Written by Dusty Smith and Lori Gust, fifth grade.

Mrs. Benson's third grade class is having trading day on November 4th. They are bringing games, toys, things they don't want; but before they can bring these things, they have to get permission from their parents. They're also learning about how Indians and pioneers trade. They are making maps and learning about Michigan. The class is learning about the sun, moon, and the solar system. Written by Debbie Jones and Janice Helsel, fifth grade.

Mrs. Akers' fourth grade made cats called Zany Katz. They are purple, red, orange, green, and blue cats. There are circle, square, triangle, and rectangular cats. And when I was in Mrs. Akers class we made Zany Katz, but I never dreamed of writing about them. Written by Janet Petrosky, fifth grade.

Mr. Hatfield's fourth grade class made Indians out of construction paper to remind them that Indians were our friends at the first thanksgiving. They also drew pictures of Thanksgiving scenes. In social studies they're learning how the French explored the St. Lawrence Seaway and the Great Lakes area, including Michigan. Written by Debbie Jones, fifth grade.

Mr. Hawkins' fifth grade class. In reading they are working on dictionary skills, literal and inferential comprehension. In math they are continuing to learn basic facts and multiplication facts and beginning to work with fractions. In spelling each week they have a new unit. Presently they are studying words with the different sounds of o's. Written by Cheryl Klinger, fifth grade.

Concerned Citizens of Crawford County:

It is good for citizens to be concerned about the community in which they live.

Concerned citizens can bring about improvements that will benefit their community.

At the present time our community has several things to be concerned about.

One of our schools has been closed. (Frederic Elementary School)

Does that concern you?

Class sizes in all remaining schools have been increased to the point of reducing learning and teaching effectiveness.

Does that concern you?

Curriculum cuts have had to be effected which can limit employment and ongoing educational opportunities for our (as concerned citizens, yours and mine) graduates.

Does that concern you?

Special education and health services have had to be reduced throughout our schools.

Does that concern you?

Transportation cuts have led to serious overcrowding and other hazardous conditions on bus routes.

Does that concern you?

Concern should be expressed constructively, then problems like those listed above can be corrected.

In my viewpoint those problems listed above are a direct result of your concern about "paying your fair share" taxes.

The dictionary definition of concerned is: disturbed or anxious. Are you disturbed or anxious about these problems listed above?

I hope you are because I am.

Grayling Loses 25-24 in Five OT's

In one of the longest games in the history of the Michigan Huron Shores Conference, Grayling and Rogers City fought for five overtimes until an extra-point kick defeated Grayling 25-24.

The extra-point kick also ended the Vikings season at a 2-7 mark.

Grayling got on the board first against Rogers City scoring on a 20-yard pass from Terry Norman to Jamie Radebaugh in the first period. Rogers City came back to tie the score 6-6.

In the third period Ted Methner scored on a one-yard run. Rogers City tied the ballgame with only one minute and ten seconds left on a one-yard run.

The Vikings had a chance to pull off a victory in regulation after receiving the kick-off. A 25-yard and 20-yard pass to Jerry Norman gave the Vikings a chance for a 37-yard field goal before time ran out. Brian Yoder had the distance.

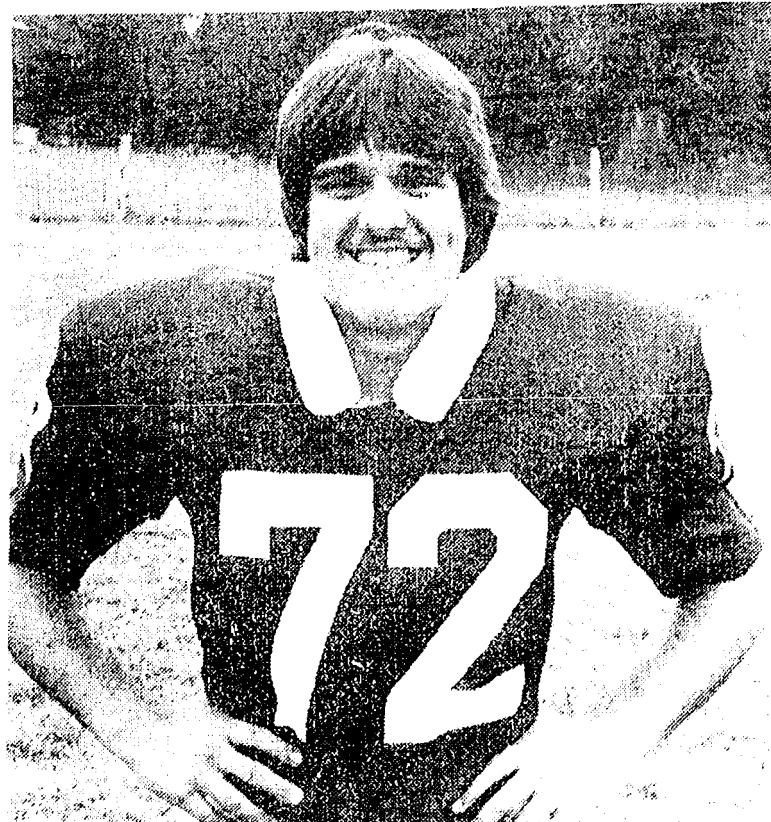

on the long attempt but the wind pushed it to one side. Head coach Bill Klinger said one referee called it good and the head referee called it wide by one foot.

In the first overtime period both teams failed to score. Grayling scored in the second on Ted Methner's one-yard run. Rogers City tied the game again and the third and fourth periods went scoreless.

Methner scored again in the fifth overtime but Rogers City scored on their first play and then kicked the winning PAT.

Klinger said the Vikings had their best offensive night thanks to the line play of Shawn Lindsay, Roger Weatherly, Bob Huether, Wayne Metzger, and Jack Money.

Defensively the Vikings were led by Metzger, Brad Trenary, Jim Hill, Jeff Kea, Dave Martella, Lindsay, Weatherly, Radebaugh, and Jack Money.

OUTSTANDING LINE PLAY—Wayne Metzger controlled the line both ways last Friday against Rogers City.

Dear Friends:

As I stood watching our children's Halloween Parade on a beautiful fall afternoon, I could not help but wonder how any parent or citizen could vote no in the upcoming millage election.

I watched approximately 750 little faces go by and they all had such a carefree feeling about them. I wonder if we really ever stop to realize the responsibility we have to these young people, let alone our Middle and High School students.

I admire and thank the teachers, administrators and non-teaching personnel for their dedication in such difficult times.

Sincerely,
Carole Gust

Students Sponsor Dinner

Grayling area students will soon be in the eye of the media when they begin a unique campaign to raise money for some of their programs which have been recently cut by millage defeats. Students from the high school, middle school and elementary school will be holding a Swiss Steak dinner at the Holiday Inn on Monday, December 7th from 4:30-8:00. The proceeds from this dinner will be evenly split between C.H.I.L.D. (Committee Hoping for Interim Library Dollars) to help the library and the Booster Club which is involved in an ambitious project to fund school athletics and scholarships among other things.

In upcoming weeks area residents will see the younger members of their community working together in an effort to show their support for the project known as CARE (Concerned About Real Education). Business' walls and windows will be adorned with posters made by elementary schoolers expressing how they feel about their education and advertising the dinner, while other students and athletes will be expressing their own personal commitment via radio and newspaper campaigns.

On hand at the dinner to serve and clean up will be area students, athletes and cheerleaders, and townspeople will have an opportunity to meet and get to know these hard working young people.

Tax deductible tickets are $5 for adults, $3 for children ages 6-12 and free for 5 and under and available at any schools, the Crawford County Library, Holiday Inn, Mac's Drugs, Down River True Value and any Booster Club member. The buffet dinner will consist of Swiss Steak, Mashed Potatoes, Vegetables, Tossed Salad, Roll and coffee, tea and milk.

Senior Citizen Homemakers Service

The Homemaker Services Program has been in operation for over two years now. To date we have provided about 7,000 hours of home-making services for Crawford County handicapped Senior Citizens over 60 years of age or older.

As you have probably heard, our budget has been cut and we have been forced to resort to a fee scale that the government gave us on reimbursements for home-making services. Our total yearly budget was only $4,863.00, and mileage @ $.22 per mile, for 4 homemakers. How will the government grant last for 37 clients if you don't each donate your fair share?

The beauty of this program is knowing that the homemaker is trained, honest, reliable and will give you the service needed when you need it.

I want to thank those of you who have been contributing, we certainly appreciate you as this allows us to continue offering the Home-making Service to everyone. We don't want to eliminate anyone who needs the Home-making Services while they are ill or disabled, so please those who can, please send in your donations when you are helped in order to allow us to help more seniors when they need service.

The Homemaker Services are available to all handicapped Crawford County Senior Citizens 60 years of age or older. Handicapped is defined as the inability to perform daily tasks, whether it be from arthritis, heart problems, just returning from the hospital but still recuperating or any illness that is disabling.

If you or you know of anyone who needs our Home-maker Services please call The Senior Citizen Center (348-9314) for more information. Better yet come in and see us. You are welcome anytime. We are located at 308 Lawndale.

Total Deregulation of Interest Rates Appears Unlikely

Warren M. Hoyt, Executive Director, MPA

After failing on a test vote, the state House of Representatives returned to committee a package of bills to totally deregulate interest rates.

The committee now is expected to develop a "floating" cap on interest rates as both Republicans and Democrats indicated the vote signalled the death of the deregulation effort.

The deregulation bills were part of a package of bills designed to aid the Michigan economy making the state a better place to live and do business.

State bankers had declared that unless interest rates were deregulated and allowed the market to set the rate up to a 25 percent criminal limit, they would not be able to lend money in Michigan creating further problems to the state's struggling economy.

Officials at Michigan National Corporation, the state's largest holding company, even went as far as threatening to move portions of their operations out of the state where they could compete in the current money market.

On the other side, the powerful United Auto Workers rallied in the name of consumerism charging that allowing deregulation was nothing but a greedy move on the part of the banks and the subsequent higher interest rates would further cripple the public's buying power and eventually cost more jobs in Michigan.

Republicans opposed the legislation because it allowed loans to be made at any interest rate and not specifying that an interest rate could not be above 25 percent, the level of criminal usury.

Several Republicans, however, made it clear they continued to back deregulation of interest rates.

They said they disapproved of high interest rates but added the state was in no position to attempt to regulate them any longer.

By returning the bills to committee, another attempt can be made to institute a floating cap - tying the maximum interest rate to the level set for six-month Treasury bills or some other index.

Price efforts to set a floating cap in committee have failed.

Governor William G. Milliken has several times said he will not support total deregulation of interest rates, but will back some unspecified floating level.

House Speaker Bobby D. Crim (D-Davison) and Senate Majority Leader William Faust (D-Westland) support the floating cap concept instead of total deregulation.

Currently, interest rates are limited by statute with rates ranging from 11 percent on land contract property sales to 25 percent on first mortgages.

A 16.5 percent interest rate maximum on automobile loans will revert to a maximum rate of 12.85 percent on December 1 if new legislation is not enacted.

The interest rate battle will continue as members of the Legislature search for ways to enact legislation designed at improving the state's economy.

Other areas of concentration include changes in the state's workers and unemployment compensation systems to bring down costs to business while protecting those persons who qualify for benefits.

Credits in the single business tax - the tax paid by all corporations and businesses in the state - will be considered but due to state budget cuts, individual property tax reform and/or relief appears to have been placed on the back burner for the year.

We must ask your cooperation in the following areas: If your child complains that he is not feeling well before he or she leaves for school be sure to check their temperature. We can do nothing at school for earaches, sore throats and rashes. If a child has a headache we are not qualified to prescribe a medication and have nothing available for them to take. We cannot treat injuries and dress wounds that occur outside of school. Children suspected of having a communicable disease will be sent home until we receive a doctor's statement approving their return to school. We will check the temperature of children complaining of feeling ill at school. If a fever is not present and a child does not show obvious flu signs or pain, they will be returned to the classroom.

Emergency Sheet: It is necessary that we have on file an emergency sheet for your child. Please check with the office if you are not sure if you returned one to us. It is extremely important that we have more than one contact person listed.

Basket Convention at Grayling

A wonderful day of sharing was spent on October 24, 1981 at the First Basketry Convention, held at the Holiday Inn in Grayling. The convention was planned and all arrangements made by Catherine Hickey, Grayling's basket instructor. The convention and luncheon was a huge success with students and teachers of the craft attending from Detroit, Plymouth and the Highland, Michigan area. Local basketmakers attended, along with students in two newer formed groups, these under the direction of Mary Reynolds of Mio, and Emma Wolf of Gaylord, both former students of Cathy Hickey. Everyone brought their own favorite work to display, providing many beautiful baskets to examine, and new techniques to admire.

Grace Kabel, of Plymouth, Mich. was in attendance. A truly remarkable woman, Grace began basketmaking in 1969 and has been "going" ever since. She teaches workshops in Plymouth, Mich. as well as teaching at Greenfield Village, and Highland, Mich. She shares her vast knowledge and love of the craft with all she meets. Grace has been labeled "the Mother of Basketry" by the Detroit Free Press, because of her innovative ideas, and the books of patterns she has composed on the subject. A highlight of the day, was the door prize drawing for one of Grace's special baskets. It was won by Loretta Schrock of Grayling, and was a new design of Grace's - an oval base splint basket.

Another highlight for many was the meeting of Edith Bondie of Hubbard Lake. Edith is Indian, and a basketmaker since childhood. Her baskets are made from splint from the black ash tree, which she goes out and collects herself. Using only native materials and "no tape measures" she forms the most special and perfect baskets to be found. Her baskets are in great demand and one of them is on permanent exhibit at the Smithsonian Institute in Washington D.C. During Vice President Mondale's term, Edith's basket was selected for display by Mrs. Mondale in the vice presidential home. As Edith demonstrated her talent many looked on with deep appreciation for her exquisite workmanship.

The First Basketry Convention can only be deemed a success because of the hard work of Cathy Hickey, herself a former Grace Kabel student. Cathy has brought to Grayling her warm personality, and great knowledge of the craft. Because of Cathy many people in the area have been awakened to the enjoyment and excitement of creating a basket. Grace once told Cathy that she had given her a gift, and in return Cathy gives this gift to each of her students, and the appreciation and acceptance of basketry continues to grow.

Because of the success of this first convention, plans are already underway for next years convention, to be held in the Detroit area in the Fall of 1982 - and from the looks on the faces of those attending the first one, this is only the beginning. By Nancy Dean.

R.S.V.P.

By Sherry Haag, Director

The annual mail campaign of the Retired Senior Volunteer Program is being conducted beginning the week of November 9.

Over 4,000 letters are being mailed to residents of Crawford County and Roscommon County.

The Retired Senior Volunteer Program is in its 9th year in Crawford County. Over the past 8 years, there have been 128,242 volunteer service hours provided by RSV. Recipients of those volunteer hours have been the Historical Museum, Hartwick Pines, the public schools and libraries, the 4-H Offices, Chamber of Commerce and Senior Citizen Center to name a few.

The Senior Volunteer also serves with the American Red Cross, COOR Special Olympics, Lovell's area (Fire Department, Douglas Park, Cheerful Givers and Lovell's Extension) and Community Services.

RSVP Volunteers are not paid, but transportation is arranged when needed, accident and liability insurance are provided.

The Retired Senior Volunteer Program is an ACTION program for anyone 60 and over. Locally the RSVP is sponsored by the Crawford County Commission on Aging. The program offers the volunteer a meaningful role in the community, a chance to serve with interest, dignity and significance. Agencies and non-profit organizations that provide services to you receive over 20,000 hours of volunteering a year from RSVP.

RSVP Budget for the 9th year is $39,220.00. Through the federal agency of ACTION $25,639.00 is provided to this grant program. On the local level, we are committed to raise the remaining 30%. All but one-third is secured through in-kind contributions of office space, equipment, and supplies. The actual cash amount to be raised is $5,000.00 which averages out to $3.00 or (25 cents a month) from approximately 2,000 households within Crawford County.

All of us look for the most value for our money. There is none better than an investment in the Retired Senior Volunteer Program which guarantees 100% return on every $1.00.

The continuation of the RSVP programs depends upon the success of the financial appeal letter.

In these days of budget cuts, more and more agencies are turning to the experience and knowledge of the Retired Volunteer for help. RSVP needs the communities financial help to continue serving the very community which supports it.

14 Crawford Co. Avalanche Doodles From The Tall Timber

Wendell L. Hoover
Park Interpreter

While taking an inspection tour of the trail through the Tall Timber, I wandered over to the site of a small intermittent pond. It is so small that perhaps I should not call it a pond because most of the time it is only ten or twelve feet across and probably not a foot deep. When there isn't any water in the depression, its bottom, which is thickly carpeted with moss, is as green as an emerald. Not far from this isolated jewel, there was a small maple with a crotch about ten feet off the ground. In this crotch was a bird's nest which at this time of the year was unoccupied. While taking pictures, I thought there was a brief flurry of movement near the nest, so I quieted down for a time to watch. It wasn't long at all before a mouse came out of the nest and scurried down the tree trunk to the ground where it disappeared. I had about given up on its returning when I saw it pop into the nest. In the next few minutes, it made two more trips to and from the nest. Upon returning to the office, I did some checking and discovered that the mouse in question was probably a White-Footed Mouse which nests anywhere that affords shelter, below ground and in buildings, stumps, logs, squirrel nests and birds' nests. They feed on seeds, nuts and insects and have a home range of one-half to one and one-half acres; surprisingly, there may be as many as twelve per acre. There are two to four litters of two to six young raised from March to as late as September. Those not taken by predators may live two to three years; thus, if it were not for the various predators, we could easily be overrun by mice.

NOTICE OF JOINT PUBLIC HEARING ON PROJECT PLAN FOR A & R FOREST PRODUCTS, INC.
INCLUDING ISSUANCE OF BONDS BY THE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT CORP.
OF THE COUNTY OF CRAWFORD, MICHIGAN
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Board of Commissioners of the County of Crawford, pursuant to and in accordance with Act 338, Michigan Public Acts, 1974, as amended, and in conjunction with the City Council of the City of Grayling, shall hold a public hearing on Nov. 24th, 1981 at 1:30 o'clock p.m., in the council chambers of the City of Grayling, Grayling, Michigan.

The Public Hearing shall be held to consider whether the Project Plan recommended to the Board of Commissioners and the City Council by The Economic Development Corporation of the County of Crawford constitutes a public purpose and the advisability of the Board of Commissioners and the City Council approving by resolution the Project Plan. The Board of Commissioners and the City Council will also consider the findings and recommendations of the County Planning Commission regarding the Project Plan.

Under the Project Plan the Project would consist of the acquisition and construction of an industrial facility for the production of door and window frames together with the site and machinery and equipment therefor and related improvements to be located within the city of Grayling on recently annexed territory located at the intersection of Industrial Street and the D & W railroad, comprising approximately 14 acres.

The project would be financed by the Economic Development Corporation of the County of Crawford (the "EDC") with the proceeds of approximately $2,800,000 of revenue bonds issued by the EDC pursuant to Act 338. The Project would be operated by A & R Forest Products, Inc., a Michigan corporation, and a wholly owned subsidiary of Aladdin Products, Inc.
Company. The revenue bonds will be secured by and payable solely and only from the installment payments received from the GOATS GO TO SCHOOL—Miss William's kindergarten class saw some goats. They were Jenny Rennekamp's goats. Her dad, Pat Rennekamp, brought them to the school. The goat's names were Jill, who was five years old, and Sweetpea, who was six months old. Jill and Sweetpea are black and white. Jill was a Lamancia goat and Sweetpea was half Lamancia. They have six goats but they only brought two. They got to feed them cracked corn. Jill didn't have horns or ears because her horns were burned off. Pictured are Jenny Rennekamp and her father and their pet goats, Jill and Sweetpea. Written by Amy Denton and Betty Partello, fifth grade.

Things to Remember About The South Side of Grayling

The old pioneers would be amazed if they could come back and see the changes in our town. Our city hall has replaced the electric light plant. The electric light replaced the ashery or soap factory. The soap factory made a very strong soap out of the wood ashes that were collected from around town.

Can you remember when the refuse from the Grayling stores was hauled to a dump behind the present city hall building? Here the refuse was burned. When it rained most of the burned material washed into the AuSable River. That was a good source of pollution.

Can you remember when the Big Mill was operating in the area where the Crawford County Historical Museum now stands? The 150 mill workers had to use an out-house built over the AuSable River below the falls. That really was pollution.

Another source of pollution was from the Dupont plant and homes along Dupont Avenue. The Dupont plant was built about 1915 and 1916. It was in the area about where the Grayling Reel Factory is located. It operated several years dumping all the refuse from the plant and homes into the AuSable River just below the lower bridge. The big sewer line ran under ground along State Street.

It is difficult to visualize the huge piles of white pine lumber covering the area where the bowling alley, the A & P, gas stations, and the A & W Root Beer stand are located.

Across the road the area where the Sears Store, ProMart Hdw, Pizza place, 7-11 store and gas stations, was covered with slab yards hauled from the Big Mill.

The Band Mill was located in the area west of the present Golf course club house. At one time part of the present golf course grounds were covered with huge piles of white pine lumber.

Vans Building Supply has replaced the planing mill that operated many years in that location.

Down 72 a short distance was the Kerry and Hanson Flooring Mill. This mill produced many grades of hard wood flooring. It is now the Georgia Pacific Warehouse.

At one time there was a turpentine plant located down Millikin Road just across the railroad tracks from the present Grayling Reel Company. The area where Madsens Saw Mill operated was completely covered with pine stumps for processing into turpentine.

Can you remember when the green house was operating in the area where Borchers Canoe Livery is located? This green house was operated by the Cook family and later sold to Fred Niederer and Ernest Borchers.

At one time the South Side boasted of the only grocery store on that side of the river.

There wasn't any school building for the "South Side Stump Dodgers" until 1913.

"New school for the South Side opened November 13, 1913" "The long hoped for school building for the patrons and pupils living on the south side of the river is finished and its doors were thrown open to the pupils on Monday of this week. Miss Louise Trevegno will teach the 3rd and 4th grades and Miss Clella Clark the 1st and 2nd. The school has a capacity of about 100 pupils and at present there are about 90 enrolled and several more pupils are expected to enter during the school year" (source an old Avalanche)

It seems at that time there was quite a difference in the social status of living on the South Side from those living on the North Side.

I can recall going to school on the South Side. I started there in the fall of 1914. I went through the 4th grade in the South Side School. As I recall we had some very good grade teachers.

It is amazing to me how well some of those "scummy" South Side kids turned out. History shows there were college instructors, teachers, high school principals, and college graduates who had successful business careers from this group of kids.

At one time the janitor hired by the school board for the South Side school was from the North Side. I can remember the janitor calling me and other kids "scummy".

One can never predict what a kid is going to turn into. I am one "scummy" kid that graduated from high school, earned a B.S. Degree from Central Michigan University, a Masters Degree from the University of Michigan, and an Education Specialist Degree from Central Michigan University. I taught school for 15 years and was high school principal in Grayling for 12 years.

The South Side School location is now an apartment building. The school building was torn down in 1975.

There were no gravel or hard surface streets on the South Side. I can remember when Dr. Insley's car usually got stuck in the sand when he drove to the South Side to see a patient. It was usually a case of getting Mr. Peter Larson's team of horses to haul the car out of the soft dry sand.

What a change from those "good old days".

At your leisure pay a visit to the Crawford County Historical Museum when it is open in the summer months. It is a place that will bring back memories for the older people. It is a place that will show the young people what it was like in the past.

There are about five hundred pictures in the museum that shows a lot of history about Crawford County. See you there.

Why does life put such a premium on balance?

I've been trying for years to fit junk food into a balanced diet. When I succeed in anything someone says the scales were tipped in my favor. When I fail I wasn't equal to the challenge.

This emphasis we place on balance is not an accident. Man has always been aware that God built into his creation order and stability. Without solving the whole mystery, I realize that my spiritual growth has to keep pace with my physical and intellectual development.

Worshipping each week makes for a well-balanced life.
